

The Institute of International Relations would like to invite you to a presentation of a new book by

Andreas Mink,
editor for Aufbau-now

Challenging “Wiedergutmachung”
The Slave Labor Negotiations of 1998–2001

In July 2000, Germany and German corporations agreed to pay out 10 billion marks to 1.7 million foreign nationals that had been enslaved and exploited by the Nazi government. The book is the first English language publication in the context of German "Wiedergutmachung".

Special Guest: Jiří Šitler, Chief Negotiator of the Czech Delegation to the Slave Labour Negotiations

Moderator: Mats Braun, Research Fellow, Institute of International Relations

Thursday, 2nd May 2013, 16:00

Institute of International Relations, Nerudova 3, Prague 1 (www.iir.cz)

Working language: English

Please confirm your participation to the Conference Service of the Institute of International Relations (e-mail: registrace@iir.cz) by Wednesday, 1st May 2013 at the latest.